

November 2017

By Andy Gero

Veterans of Crescenta Valley, your community thanks you for the sacrifice and service you gave to our Country. Your service has played a major role in giving us the freedom so many of us takes for granted today.

In gratitude for your service, your local American Legion and Veteran of Foreign Wars (VFW) Posts, in concert with our National Organizations are here to serve you. We are available to help you file for benefits claims, get answers for your health care, help you with your GI Bill benefits, assist you in job research, assist you in correcting your military records or discharge status, provide support for homeless veterans and much more.

The American Legion Post 288 and the VFW Post 1614, in La Crescenta are both located at the Memorial Hall 4011 La Crescenta Ave., in La Crescenta. You may reach us by leaving a message at 818-541-1336. Knowledgeable Officer from either Post is available at your convenience. Visit our website www.vetspost288 or www.vetspost 1614.
