NEW VETERAN'S WEBSITE

Kevin Bularz, a native of La Crescenta always had a desire to give back to his community. By doing so, he created new websites for the American Legion Post 288 and the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Post 1614 here in La Crescenta.

Kevin is the son of Ronald Bularz, Commander of the VFW Post 1614 in La Crescenta. Kevin is a lifer at Village Christian Schools; he received his AA degree from Glendale College and further received his BS degree from Cal State Northridge. With a fascination for computers and iPhone technology he started his own business specializing in computers resolving PC issues and software updates.

The purpose of these websites' is to inform veterans on issues related to veteran's benefits and events that occur in our community. Websites will be updated whenever new information is received.

The VFW Post 1614, and the American Legion Post 288 sponsor the two websites. Both Posts reside at 4011 La Crescenta Ave., La Crescenta, CA. For information call 818 541 1336, leave a message on our service phone. Calls will be returned within 24 hours.

Should you have a need to visit the Veteran's affairs office on Wilshire Blvd., in West Los Angeles, be informed that our Posts have a Veteran's Service Officer available to assist you. Call the CV Weekly at 818 248 2740, or attend an American Legion Post meeting on the first Wednesday of each month, or a VFW meeting on the third Wednesday of each month. Both meetings start at 7:30 pm.
